THE LATEST FROM DR. YOO REGARDING DERMATOLOGY AND SKIN CARE

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Sending our warmest wishes for a happy and healthy holiday season. Thank you for being part of our practice, and we look forward to seeing you in the new year.

IHEART RADIO FEATURE
THE SCIENCE OF PIGMENT CORRECTION

This month, I joined A Moment of Xen Live on iHeart Radio and 710 WOR with host Xen Sams to discuss the evolving science behind pigment correction and melasma. We explored how modern dermatology is moving toward more targeted, evidence based approaches to treating hyperpigmentation. It was a meaningful opportunity to share science backed skin education and continue the conversation around thoughtful, individualized pigment care.

IN STUDIO WITH WEBMD

I recently hosted a live taping in my office for an upcoming WebMD feature focused on atopic dermatitis (eczema). It was an exciting opportunity to share dermatologist guided education in an accessible, patient centered way, with an emphasis on caring for eczema across diverse skin tones and communities.

79TH ANNUAL SOCIETY OF COSMETIC CHEMISTS SCIENTIFIC MEETING: HENRY MASO KEYNOTE

I was honored to deliver the Henry Maso Keynote Award Lecture at the 79th Annual Society of Cosmetic Chemists Scientific Meeting and Showcase. My talk, Pixels to Formulations: How AI Is Shifting Dermatologic Skin Care Solutions, explored how artificial intelligence is shaping the future of dermatology and cosmetic science, from advanced skin imaging to more precise, data informed skincare development. It was a meaningful opportunity to share this work with leaders across the cosmetic and personal care industry.

Ultrasound Adds 'Fourth Eye' to Dermatology

Marcia Frellick
December 22, 2025

This month, I was featured in Cosmetics Design and Medscape Medical News discussing advancements shaping the future of dermatology, from FDA efforts to modernize sunscreen regulation to the expanding role of ultrasound as a critical tool in clinical and aesthetic care. These developments highlight how science, technology, and regulation continue to evolve alongside patient needs.

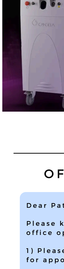
NEW TECH SPOTLIGHT
VBEAM PULSED DYE LASER REDNESS & VASCULAR CONCERNS



🌟 Do you struggle with facial redness, rosacea, broken capillaries, or post acne red marks?

VBeam Pulsed Dye Laser (PDL) is a gold standard treatment designed to safely and effectively target vascular concerns in the skin.

VBeam uses targeted pulses of light to selectively treat excess blood vessels beneath the skin's surface, helping reduce redness, visible veins, and inflammation without damaging surrounding tissue. The result is a clearer, calmer, and more even looking complexion.

It's a quick, well tolerated treatment with minimal downtime, making it easy to fit into your routine. Many patients notice significant improvement after just a few sessions.

✨ Ready to see the difference? Reach out to us at appts@janeyoomd.com to schedule your consultation and learn how VBeam PDL can help you achieve healthier, more even toned skin this winter.
