TOKYO

Congratulations to all those who ran the NYC Half Marathon last month. Having completed Tokyo marathon this year, I have Berlin left in September to get my Abbott six star finisher medal. Good luck to those that are running the London and Boston Marathons! Before you know it, fall marathon training season will be just around the corner.

CONFERENCE TRAVELING!

My conference travels this year have taken me to Paris, Miami, San Diego and now Baltimore followed by Sao Paulo this month. It is always a pleasure to give talks at major dermatology conferences on a variety of different topics—from sunscreen filters to AI to regenerative medicine and the use of ultrasound for accurate filler placement. Loreal even transformed me into a goddess for an evening!

CLINICAL TRIALS

We are currently working on various cosmetic clinical trials at the office including one with AmorePacific, a Korean skincare brand. Please reach out to us at clinicaltrials@janeyoomd.com if you are interested in participating!
