FIND OUT WHAT I'VE BEEN UP TO!

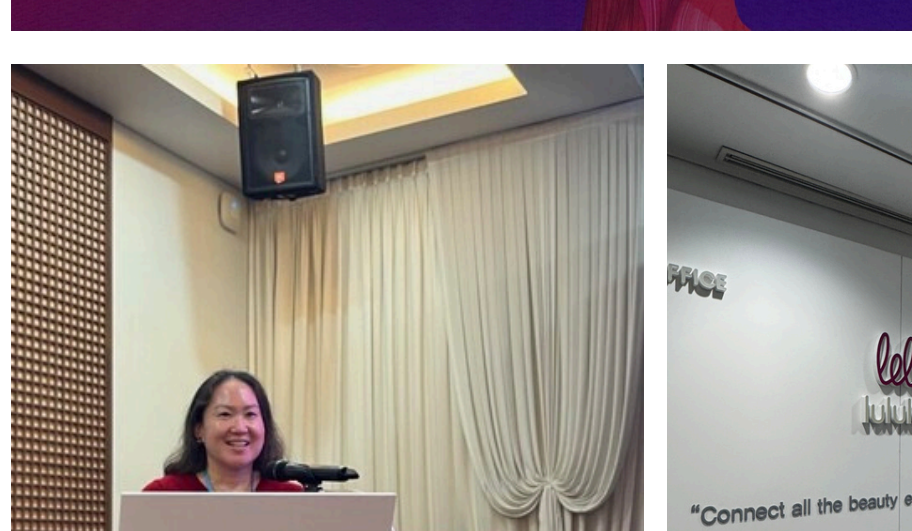

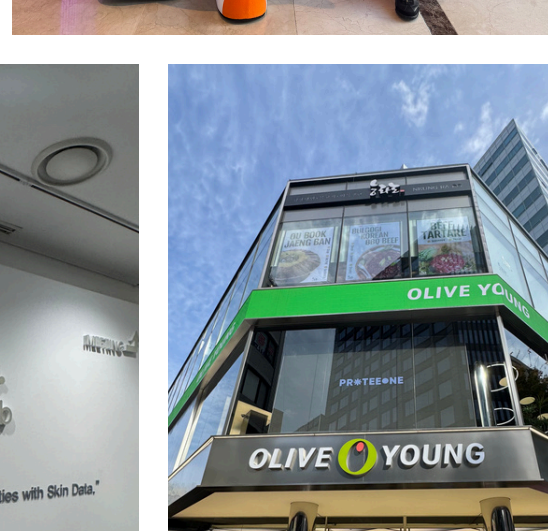

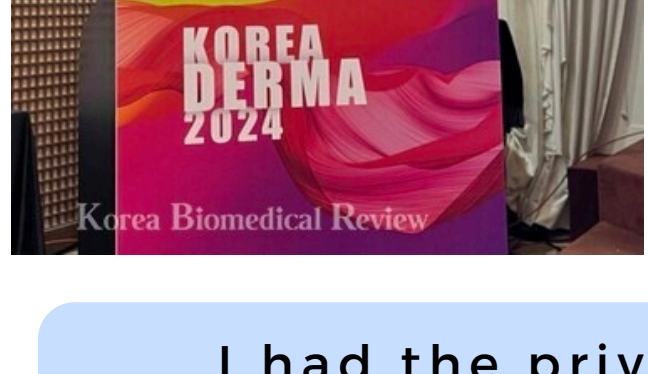

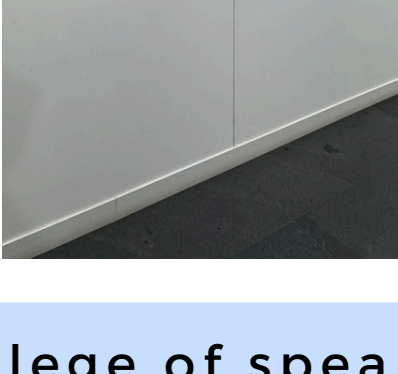

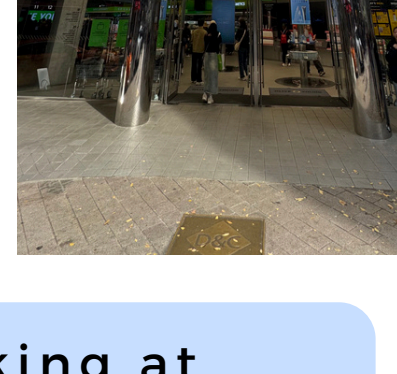

MY BEST WINTER SKIN DAY

On October 24th, I was thrilled to join My Best Winter Skin Day—a campaign by the Skin of Color Society for winter skincare!

I joined Columbia University's Orchestis Dance Group and spoke with my running group The New York Flyers, sharing top tips to keep skin healthy, moisturizer, and resilient all season long!

KOREADERMA 2024

I had the privilege of speaking at KOREADERMA 2024, connecting with global dermatology professionals and presenting on AI in dermatology and laser-powered microjet technology for facial aesthetics. It was incredibly exciting to witness the latest breakthroughs in our field!

While in Korea, I also explored cutting-edge skin tech, including Lululab's LUMINI Kiosk—a self-service station for quick skin analysis and personalized recommendations. Check out our new website, www.beautytechderm.com, and follow us on Instagram @janeyoomd to see more highlighted skincare tech!

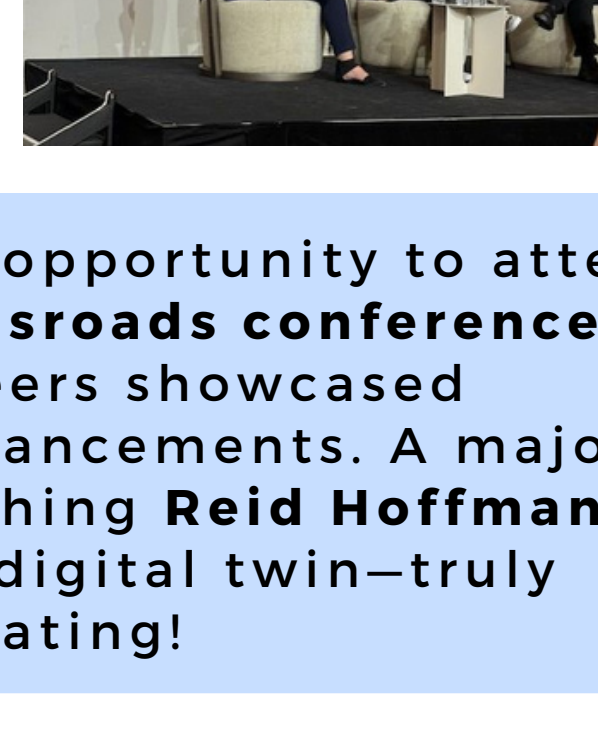

CMAC CONFERENCE

IN LONDON

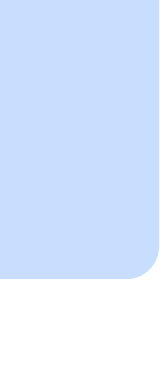

Safety always comes first in aesthetic medicine! I attended the Complications in Medical Aesthetics Collaborative (CMAC) conference in London and connected with multidisciplinary experts. We explored the best practices for managing nodules, addressing adverse events from fillers, refining injection techniques, and supportive therapies. I'm excited to bring these advanced insights back to my practice to enhance patient outcomes!

MIT AI CONFERENCE

Last month, I had the opportunity to attend MIT's AI at the Crossroads conference, where AI pioneers showcased groundbreaking advancements. A major highlight was watching Reid Hoffman interact with his digital twin—truly fascinating!
